

I have been listening to K-LOVE radio for years now and find that it is a refreshing change to the norm on the radio. When sappy country and angry alternative music makes one wonder about sanity, K-LOVE is there to rescue us. K-LOVE is a great asset to the public in it's positive and encouraging music. K-LOVE is a great station and would be greatly missed if it were replaced. I believe it's great that there is a station out there that plays good christian music unashamedly, proclaiming God's love and grace in a country that was founded on christian morals and values, despite what many say. Washington, D.C. is filled with memorials and buildings with God's word(bible scripture) inscribed in stone. These are surely a reminder of our forefathers that God gave them the strength and ability for this country to be free. People need somewhere to turn to realize what is really important, God, family, and freedom. K-LOVE is that station. Please do not replace K-LOVE. May God bless America and all that she stands for.
